Excerpt from Letter From the Secretary of the Treasury: Transmitting Tables and Notes on the Cultivation, Manufacture, and Foreign Trade of Cotton But as that minuteness did not come within the scope of my original examinations, what I have thus hastily collected and presented must be regarded rather as a few general facts for comparison, and as hints or suggestions, to be followed out by others who enjoy more leisure, than as a full compilation of statistics on the subject of cotton. Yet, in their present imperfect and meager state under some heads, they still contain, under each, it is hoped, a few data which may prove useful, since they bring together, in a condensed and systematic view, many scattered details on a subject very important to the finances of the country at this time, as well as to its future prosperity, in each of the three great branches of national industry - agriculture, commerce, and manufactures. Any inferences or suggestions on the influence of tariffs upon the growth or manufacture of cotton, or on the propriety...
