Now, good people, pray the Lord receive him, If life remained, yet with us he d be j Some other time he will be recorded, We can t forget the Colliery. But perhaps hereafter they will not falter, When the Cross will guide us to victory, And we ll plant the tree of sweet Liberty. Here s a health to you, my brave county Wexford, Throw off the yoke and to victory run, Let no man think we gave up our arms, When every man has two when done. So now, my friends, the time s approaching, When all in one body, there is no fears, We ll be commanded by Pius s teaching, Like Father Murphy and his Shelmaliers. DEATH BEFOKE DISHONOUR; OR THE FOUR IRISH SOLDIERS. These Songs, which were published by the United Irishmen, in...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
