Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Robert Browning's Poetry: Outline Studies These outlines have been prepared with the hope that they may help in the study of a poet whose works evince the highest poetic art and insight, works which are so numerous and varied in character that they constitute, as Canon Farrar says, a literature in themselves. The order in which the poems of Robert Browning shall be studied is an important question, though fortunately one that permits of various answers, each of which will yield good results. The order set forth in the accompanying outline is the result of considerable experience as well as much thought, and it is hoped will commend itself to many. But others will prefer to begin with the love poems or the dramas, which display the poet's most characteristic quality. He is always dramatic Whatever form or style he uses, his writings are everywhere permeated by the spirit of a living, struggling humanity. Man's thoughts and loves and hates. Earth is my vineyard, these grew there. One club in New York...
