Xlibris Corporation. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 450 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 1.2in. What if the pieces of life's jig saw could be fitted together in a different pattern? How would the resulting mosaic appear? Would we improve the picture, or are we governed by our fears and prejudices? Would we like what we discovered, or would it still turn out, very different to our hopes and dreams? This story is an adventure, no more of a saga, dealing with the many facets of a relationship and the mutual ambitions of a couple engaged in their race up the corporate ladder. It is the effect that these complicating influences have on the characters, that forms the main theme. One miserable morning, when Rick is at particularly low ebb, and on the way to his usual weekly confrontational planning meeting, with his boss; he sees and falls for a most beautiful girl, Monica. He has not met her but feels that he knows her well. In a disastrous introduction, she is horrified by him. He then discovers, to his misery, that they have been brought together to set up part of a new look business at Raymonds behest, as part of his scheme to become the most successful director in Norway. There is an uneasy standoff until, Monica walks in to Rick's office late one evening, and starts a conversation with him. She talks as though they have been friends for many years, this throws Rick completely. They form a talented team, and succeed in implementing Raymonds scheme, much to his delight. Initially, as the workplace becomes pressurised Monica seems to thrive in this hothouse atmosphere. After a euphoric start, Rick becomes more nervous and upset. The apparent changes in Monica intensify this anxiety. This situation begins to overwhelm him, and so...
