Tucked away and often overlooked, Malachi might be one of the most important books of our time. If you have a desire to grow a group toward God this book has been used to do it. College groups, new church plants, and youth groups have all studying this resource and discovered the result of truly living in a covenant community. In Malachi's day, as our own, God's people had become isolated from each other and disconnected from the intimacy God invites us to enjoy. MOMENTS WITH MALACHI encourages and instructs the reader to delight in the God above and the family around them. With twenty-eight short reflections or moments with Malachi, a focused readers will. * See God more clearly * See themselves more objectively * See those around them with stronger love * See worship and fellowship as top priorities MOMENTS WITH MALACHI unites hearts when read in a group setting or between accountability partners. Youth groups have been drawn closer to God and each other after studying the book, as have college groups. Missionaries and church planters could use the book as an entry point of talking about the basics of faith and the standard of obedience. At the end of each moment with Malachi, the reader will have discussion questions to consider and journal space to fill. These sections help remind the reader of how God spoke to them while reading, or could be used to make notes during a lesson from the book by a youth pastor or small group leader. . Editorial Review MOMENTS WITH MALACHI by Michael Powell is revealing is so many ways. As I began...
