

Living Christianity

By Travis Mashburn

Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 164 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.4in. Living Christianity is an important text that arms the modern Christian with insight, history, thought provoking analysis and warnings. In a world of religious ambiguities, coupled with an increasing secularist outpouring, many Christians are left behind in a sea of doubt. The range of questions a Christian may have can be discouraging and the inability to respond coherently to an approaching cynic can demolish an already shaky confidence. Whether you have issues with comprehending the concept of God or you would like to better understand Jesus, this book offers a collection of valuable insights to tough questions and engages your thoughts so you can make your own decisions. Knowledge is the only obstacle to understanding and this book is the answer. In his final semester of graduate school, Travis Mashburn had the fortunate experience of a self igniting spark that transitioned him from bystander to soldier in the fight for Christ. Though his major was electrical engineering, he developed a keen interest in religion and began to question conflicting viewpoints from equally reliable Christian authorities. Mashburns pursuit of understanding merged with a desire to encourage others...
